Blytheco Client MRIS Wins Sage Customer Award

Laguna Hills, California – November 9, 2009 – Blytheco, LLC, a Sage North America business partner, announced today that its client, Metropolitan Regional Information Systems (MRIS), received the Best Use of Customization award from Sage North America for 2009. MRIS was one of six companies recognized for their outstanding business achievements using Sage products and services.

With Blytheco's help, MRIS was able to develop and implement automated processes that simplified the entire customer invoicing and payment cycle after the implementation of Sage MAS 500 ERP.

"Congratulations to this year's Sage Customer Awards winners and their business partners," said Jodi Uecker-Rust, President of Sage Business Solutions Division. "Sage's purpose is simple: to make it easier for our customers to manage their business processes. Sage business partners are an integral part of that effort, ensuring our customers like MRIS have a great experience working with Sage and our products and services so they can achieve outstanding business results. Congratulations to Blytheco and MRIS."

Customer Awards winners and their business partners were honored during a special luncheon at the Sage Summit customer conference in Atlanta, GA on November 9th.
